"From the Pastor's Desk"

Do you know the definition of Evangelize? It means to talk with enthusiasm about something good! We do it all the time, don't we? First of all we talk about Football, and then we talk about Food, and we talk about Friends, and we talk about Fun. All of these are good. But there's a great need to talk about something else that's very good … Faith!

Faith is our free response to God's revelation of who He is and what He wants us to do to stay united to Him.

Faith is essential to our happiness here on earth and to our Eternal Happiness in Heaven. It is something good! In fact there is nothing else that compares to this as a worthy topic of discussion.

That was the feeling of the 4 men who wrote the Gospels … they were known as Evangelists for the way they talked and wrote with enthusiasm about the good news that salvation is to be found by first having faith in Jesus Christ and then living your life abiding in Him.

Now it's important to realize that all of us are called to be evangelists … each in their own way. Once we became Brothers and Sisters in God's Family through Baptism, we received God's call to evangelize others to come to know God.

We may be diverse in our ministry … but we are united in our mission … that all might come to know and love the Lord and experience salvation through Him..

With the opening of the Year of Faith just 17 days away, this would be a most appropriate time to reflect on all those people in our circle of influence (family, friends, neighbors and co-workers) who as yet don't have the strong relationship with Jesus Christ through the Catholic Church and then reach out to them with the invitation to come and learn about the Catholic Faith.

Many of you have already been doing this, which is why some 30 non-Catholics showed up Tuesday evening for our first RCIA meeting in St. Elizabeth Ann Seton 's Parish Hall!

Thank you for being evangelists!

Keep up the good work … there's many other people who have yet to experience the grace and mercy of God as we know it in the Catholic Church.

Some 60 people … Catholics and non-Catholics attended our first class and there's room for many more!

So be bold and ask people to come to the RCIA class at 7 PM on Tuesday … the Holy Spirit will take it from there!

Hand out our Invitations or call us and we'll mail them for your. May God bless your efforts. Love, Fr. Deering
