Eucharistic Adoration

Adoration at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church will take a break for the summer and resume Sept 15, 2015.

Join us for St. Henry Friday Night Nights 6:30pm on the second Friday of every month!

Hey folks, Have you ever wanted to learn how to evangelize? Ever been in a situation where you wanted to say something about Jesus, or your Catholic Faith, but just didn't know how to get started? Well, we've got what you need. The Office of the New Evangelization is conducting a "Basic Evangelization Workshop" at St. Peter the Apostle parish in Birmingham on July 10th and 11th.

The workshop will be conducted by St. Paul Street Evangelization - an organization that has chapters all throughout the U.S. that specialize in street evangelization. But, while street evangelization is their specialty, this training can be applied to pretty much any situation you may find yourself in - at work, at home, at the gym, in the neighborhood - it's easy and it's fun. So, whether you want to start a St. Paul Street Evangelization chapter and go out on the street to evangelize, or just want to get a conversation going with a family member or co-worker, this workshop is for you.

Basic Evangelization Training I will be Friday night, July 10th, from 6:30 - 9:00. Basic Evangelization Training II will be Saturday, July 11th, from 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM. The cost is $40 if you register online, $50 at the door. That cost includes lunch on Saturday. For more information, or to register, go to: saintpaulse.com (scroll down to "Diocesan and Parish Evangelization Formation") and click on the "Diocese of Birmingham" link. Or, call Deacon John Cooper: 205-930-5108. There are a limited number of places available, so sign up sooner rather than later. God bless!

"From the Pastor's Desk"

In the war of 1812, Great Britain attempted to regain control over the United States and on September 14, 1814, the British Royal Fleet proved their prowess in a spectacular and useless display of military power by pummeling Fort McHenry in Baltimore harbor with cannon bombs.

The Americans did not return fire. But they did hang a red, white and blue flag out. At dawn — much to everyone's surprise — the British had not breached the fort's walls and the flag was still there.

An eye-witness to this, Francis Scott Key, decided to write a patriotic song. He fitted his words to a popular English drinking club song called, "To Anacreon in Heaven."

In the now-forgotten final stanza, Key wrote:

*Then conquer we must when our cause it is just
And this be our motto: "In God is our Trust."*

*And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."*

Key's name spread throughout the United States because of the popularity of "the Star Spangled Banner" as it was sung everywhere, though it would not formally be adopted as the national anthem of the United States for another century.

Well, here we are today ... just 200 after the penning of that song and the question is ... are we still the land of the free and the home of the brave?

We may not have a foreign enemy bombarding us with cannons ... but our freedom is being threatened just the same.

What freedom am I referring to? Our freedom of religion ... that is being threatened not from outside but from within.

Yes, our political culture is losing patience with the inconvenient truths of the Catholic faith and so there is a movement to narrowly redefine religious freedom and reduce it to merely freedom of worship ... saying in effect ... "OK, y'all are free to do whatever you want inside your churches ... but don't dare bring your beliefs out in the open and into the public square!"

See this for what it is ... an attack on our Religious Freedom ... something we're assured of by our Constitution.

This is in direct opposition to what Saint John Paul II declared in 1996, saying "The most fundamental human freedom is that of practicing one's faith openly, which for human beings is their reason for living."

In order for us to remain "the land of the free" we must all witness that we are "the home of the brave"!

So, pray and bravely stand up for our Religious freedom!
Prayers and blessings, Father Deering

Right to Life

Being personally against abortion but favoring another's right to abortion is contradictory and baffling. It's like saying that we're personally against child abuse but we defend our neighbor's right to abuse his child if that is his choice. As a society we do not condone child abuse; then why do we condone the ultimate child abuse-abortion?
