Thank you for your generosity.

We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord ...

2 Corinthians 8:1-9

Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you." Luke 6:38

Please patronize the sponsors who appear on the back of this bulletin. It is through their support that our bulletin is made possible.

PRO LIFE What do we do about the passing of New York's abortion bill?

We grieve. We tell the truth. We walk by faith. We come alongside crisis pregnancy centers and make sure that pregnant woman know they have real options including adoption and/or substantive support from communities of believers who will become for them a family within the household of God. If we don't make the option of life substantial and real - including how they can thrive and not merely survive - then more children will be sacrificed on the altar of Choice.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

How do you "fish" for people in your life? What might you do today to live out the good news of the Gospel?

PRAYER: How grateful I am, Lord, that the fishermen of the new covenant are gathering people for salvation, not for judgment. Yes, part of the Gospel involves the bad news of our sin and your judgment. But this prepares us to hear the good news of your forgiveness in Christ.

Thank you, dear Lord, for "catching" me in the net of your grace. Thank you for calling me to be one of your fishermen. Help me, by your Spirit, to fish faithfully each day. No matter where I am, no matter what I'm doing, may I demonstrate the Gospel in the way I live. And may I find ways to share the good news with others. Amen.
