Pope Francis' App "Click to Pray"

Connects Catholics to a global network to share prayer requests via their smartphone. Try this app which allows users to post prayer intentions. The android and iOS app includes the pope's monthly prayer intention, all of the mysteries of the rosary and daily prayers for morning and ways to share that you have prayed. The pope opened the new app using an iPad during his Angelus address and encouraged young Catholics, in particular, to download the smartphone app to pray the "Rosary of Peace".

Josh Altonji-Asst. Vocations Director and diocesan seminarians to learn more about the Priesthood and seminary life. This retreat takes place at Camp Tekakwitha east of Birmingham on Friday evening, February 22 through Sunday afternoon February 24, 2019. There is no cost to attend but Registration is required.

A prayer for Religious vocations:

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, we know that you call a sufficient number of men and women to service in your church as Priests and Sisters. May they be given the grace and courage to hear and answer your call. Please help parents to trust your call so that their sons and daughters can choose their vocation in life in wisdom and freedom. We ask this of the Father in your Holy Name. Amen.

PRO LIFE

What do we do about the passing of New York's abortion bill?

We grieve. We tell the truth. We walk by faith. We come alongside crisis pregnancy centers and make sure that pregnant woman know they have real options including adoption and/or substantive support from communities of believers who will become for them a family within the household of God. If we don't make the option of life substantial and real – including how they can thrive and not merely survive – then more children will be sacrificed on the altar of Choice.

Dear Father and St. Henry Parishioners,

Words are inadequate to express the gratitude for allowing us to have Dennis' visitation in St. Henry Parish Hall.

The food was delicious — Thanks to everyone who prepared and served.

Thank you too for the prayers and concern shown during Dennis' battle with cancer.

He would often comment, "I can feel the prayers."

The floral arrangement from the choir was beautiful and was taken on to Louisville to the service there.

Again thank you for many acts of kindness. Knowing how much you care helps to ease the pain of losing my best friend and husband.

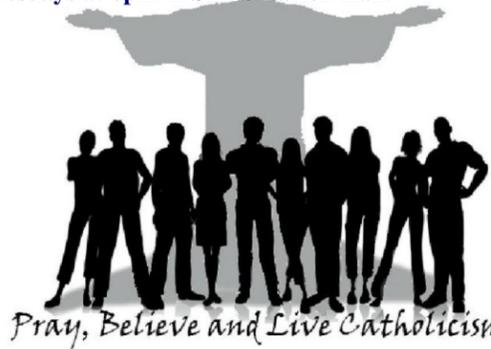

With love, Pamela Dearing and Family

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Faith in God is not just faith to believe in spiritual ideas. It's to have confidence in love itself. It's to have confidence in reality itself. At its core, reality is OK. God is in it. God is revealed in all things. The most powerful, most needed, and most essential teaching is always about love. Love is our foundation and our destiny. It is where we come from and where we're headed. As St. Paul said, "So faith, hope, and love remain, but the greatest of these is love" (1 Cor 13:13). God's love is planted inside each of us as the Holy Spirit, who, according to Jesus, "will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (Jn 14:26). Love is who you are.

All I can do is remind you of what you already know deep within your True Self and invite you to live connected to this Source. John the Evangelist wrote, "God is love, and whoever remains in love, remains in God and God in him." (1 Jn 4:16). The creation story says that we were created in the very "image and likeness" of God—who is love (Gn 1:26 and Gn 9:6).

We have heard this phrase so often that we don't get the existential shock of what "created in the image and likeness of God" is saying about us. If this is true—and I believe it is—our family of origin is divine. It is saying that we were created by a loving God to be love in the world. Our core is original blessing, not original sin. Our starting point is positive, and, as it is written in the first chapter of the Bible, it is "very good" (Gn 1:31).

This was adapted from Franciscan Father Richard Rohr's book Essential Teachings on Love
