Diocese of Birmingham Discernment Weekend
for men 18-40 years of age. This weekend retreat will be given by Fr. Brett Brannen, author of TO SAVE A THOUSAND SOULS. Spend time with Bishop Baker, Fr. Rick Chenault-Vicar for Vocations, Fr. Josh Altonji-Asst. Vocations Director and diocesan seminarians to learn more about the Priesthood and seminary life. This retreat takes place at Camp Tekakwitha east of Birmingham on Friday evening, February 22 through Sunday afternoon February 24, 2019. There is no cost to attend but Registration is required. Please contact the Office of Vocations with questions or to register: (205) 838-8318 or vocations@bhmdiocese.org

A prayer for Religious vocations:

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, we know that you call a sufficient number of men and women to service in your church as Priests and Sisters. May they be given the grace and courage to hear and answer your call. Please help parents to trust your call so that their sons and daughters can choose their vocation in life in wisdom and freedom. We ask this of the Father in your Holy Name. Amen.

Abortion is nothing more than a "choice" to kill. Pray for all who have made the wrong "choice", that they will find God's forgiveness and love. Pray that we will have the courage to rise up in love and protect life from conception

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Luke was the only Gentile to write books of the Bible, and he was a close companion of St. Paul. St. Luke is known as a very gifted writer, a physician by trade. The Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles are works that depict an author who certainly was aware of the needs of his local community. One of the major concerns for Luke was the fact that the people were beginning to give up their faith. They were questioning how Jesus' words, 60 years past to the Hebrew people, could still be pertinent to a "new generation" and culture. Because of this, Luke stresses mercy, gentleness, and healing time and again. The "Prodigal Son" is one of Luke's shining examples of God's unfathomable gentleness, love, and mercy. Luke focuses on Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. The journey of Jesus is one of gentle service. Luke depicts Jesus often reaching out to the poor and the marginalized in gentle and loving ways. Mercy, healing, companionship on the journey, and especially gentleness toward one another are very much needed in our own lives as followers of Jesus. We can lead much more effectively and fruitfully if we "put on an apron" (Luke 12:37) and serve as Jesus served, just as the "scribe of Christ's gentleness" illustrates in his writings. Therein, we find real and true leadership. St. Luke pray for us. Amen.
