"From the Pastor's Desk"

The Saturdays of June are very special to all of us because in Cathedrals throughout America and all around the world, men are receiving the Sacrament of Holy Orders and being ordained into the Priesthood of Jesus Christ!

Through the Prayer of Consecration and the laying-on of hands by a Catholic Bishop, the Holy Spirit is poured upon, mere men and their souls of are thereby configured to Christ the Head ... enabling them to teach and preach the Good News of Jesus Christ in the name of the Church and endowing them with the power to dispense the grace of God through the Sacraments!

Yesterday, Saturday June 4th, was an especially graced-filled day for all of us here in the Diocese of Birmingham as 2 men received the Sacrament of Holy Orders from Bishop Robert Baker!

The newly ordained Father Wyman Vinton of St. Mark the Evangelist parish is now a Diocesan Priest who will be serving in his initial assignment as Associate Pastor to Fr. Bob Sullivan at St. Francis Xavier Church in Mountain Brook, Alabama.

The newly ordained Father Jim Handerhan of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish is now a Diocesan Priest who will be serving in his initial assignment as Associate Pastor to Fr. Phil O'Kennedy at St. John the Baptist Church up in Madison, Alabama, west of Huntsville.

How especially proud we are of Jim ... our very own parishioner ... who after being widowed in 2000 ... heard and responded to God's call ... to serve the Church as a Priest.

He will now be serving you not as brother but as Father.

Two new Priests to serve us ... how blessed we are!

And yet we need more ... many more ... to serve the needs of a growing Church family. With some 500 people coming into the Catholic Church in our Diocese each year through RCIA, and with many young Catholic couples demonstrating their love for life by having larger families, there will be more and more souls to shepherd into the Kingdom of Heaven.

So, let's continue to pray for ... our Seminarians ... and for all those God is calling to enter Seminary and become Priests.

Love, Father Deering
